Sir:

The Office Action of January 25, 2008 has been received, and it is anticipated that a reply will be filed in due course.

The Office Action has been made "final." However, it includes a new ground of rejection of a claim whose scope was not changed in the last Amendment (claim 11). Applicant should be entitled to respond to this new ground of rejection without the constraints of a final rejection. The "finality" of the office Action is premature, and should be withdrawn.

Respectfully submitted,
